Re: Notice of Ex Parte Communications in the Matter of the Consumer Bankers Association
Petition for Expedited Declaratory Ruling with Respect to Certain Provisions of the Indiana Revised Statutes and Indiana Administrative Code, CG Docket No. 02-278

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206 of the Federal Communications Commission's ("Commission") Rules governing ex parte permit but disclose proceedings, the Indiana Office of the Attorney General hereby submits an original and three (3) copies of the following notice of its meetings with Commission staff on October 20 and 21, 2005 in the above-captioned proceeding. Please date-stamp and return the additional copy in the self-addressed, stamped envelope provided.

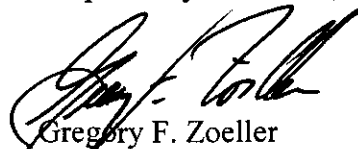

On Thursday, October 20, 2005 at 2:00 p.m., Steve Carter, Attorney General for the State of Indiana and Gregory Zoeller, Chief Deputy Attorney General for the Office of the Indiana Attorney General, met with Michael J. Copps, Commissioner with the Federal Communications Commission, and Jessica Rosenworcel, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Copps. A second meeting was held on Friday, October 21, 2005 at 11 a.m. Attending were Attorney General Steve Carter, Gregory Zoeller, Kevin Martin, Chairman with the Federal Communications Commission, and Monica Desai, Acting Chief with the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau.

Attached are the documents presented and discussed at both meetings. They include a Wall Street Journal article entitled Do-Not-Call Lists Under Fire by Christopher Conkey and a spreadsheet detailing the FTC "Do-Not-Call List" complaint volume by state. Furthermore, I inquired as to the status of the pending petitions before the Federal Communications Commission. Discussions were concluded with mention of the recent ruling from Judge Sarah Evans Barker in National Coalition of Prayer, Inc. et al., v. Steve Carter, Cause No. IP 02-0536-C B/S.

Respectfully submitted,

Gregory F. Zoeller
Chief Deputy Attorney General
Office of the Indiana Attorney General
